Hi Chief Frost,

I am reaching out to you to see about setting up a meeting between the NCCC and the AFN. It would be important to start discussions on how our organizations can work together to deliver on the AFN resolutions passed and overall the long term reform of the First Nations Child and Family Services Program.

At some point the AFN Executive will want to meet with the NCCC leadership, so I would suggest we plan a working level meeting first in order to identify areas of collaboration and then we can be in a position to inform our respective leadership on a potential path forward.

I'm not sure who would be the most appropriate person at the NCCC for me to work with to set up a working level meeting, so I am hoping you can point me in that direction.

Thank you for your consideration.
